Prayer in Preparation for the Ipswich Deanery

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS

Lord Jesus Christ, who has left to us in the Blessed Sacrament a memorial of your Passion, grant to us, we pray, the grace to prepare worthily for ‘the festival divine’ by which our belief in your presence in the Holy Eucharist may be deepened, and our devotion to you rekindled. Through your Sacramental presence among us, and by our acts of homage, may there be raised up in our parishes a renewed spirit of faith and fervour, that our hearts may burn with the fire of your love, and our deeds show forth the beauty of your holiness. Amen.

FR DICK HEALY RIP

Some of you will remember Fr Dick Healy who died suddenly on Tuesday morning, 18th August, at Montana House aged 83. Brought up in Ipswich, he was an altar server here and at St Mary’s. He was ordained priest in 1980 and served in St George’s, Norwich, St Edmunds in Bury St Edmunds, as Parish Priest at St Mary’s, Ipswich, at Brandon and Mildenhall, at Woodbridge and then as part of the Clergy team at Our Lady and the English Martyrs, Cambridge. Our condolences are with his family. Funeral arrangements will follow. May he now rest in peace and be rewarded for his labours in the Lord’s vineyard. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon.

'God in his omnipotence could not give more, in His wisdom He knew not how to give more, in His riches He had not more to give, than the Eucharist.' St Augustine

Fr Joseph writes: We continue our series of reflections on the Blessed Sacrament in preparation for our Eucharistic Congress in September by looking at the twentieth verse of St Thomas Aquinas' Sequence for the feast of Corpus Christi, the Lauda Sion, translated by Edward Caswall.

SINCE THE SIMPLE SIGN ALONE

Since the simple sign alone
Suffers change in state or form,
The Signified remaining One
And the Same for evermore.

Having referred to the Blessed Virgin Mary in our last consideration, we pick up that link once more. Whilst only the simple and outward sign of bread suffers change when the Sacred Host is broken – but the substance of the Holy Eucharist (that is, the presence of Our Lord Himself) does not – so we are reminded of the eternal nature of the Divine Person who is made present in the Blessed Sacrament, He who is 'the same for evermore'.

The fourteenth century hymn, Ave Verum Corpus, attributed to Pope Innocent VI (d.1362), sings in praise of the presence in the Sacred Host of the 'true Body, truly born/ Of the Virgin Mary mild.' The Catholic Faith proclaims what Our Lord Himself taught, namely that it is the same flesh of Christ in the Holy Eucharist as was born of the Blessed Virgin Mary two thousand years ago in the stable in Bethlehem, the town of David. The link is made all the clearer when we know that the word Bethlehem is derived from the Hebrew words meaning House of Bread or House of Food. He who is given 'the throne of David his father' (Lk 1:32), and who, 'when the fullness of time was come... [was] made of a woman' (Gal 4:4), is the same Person who is made sacramentally present under the Sacred Species – under the appearances – of Bread and Wine in the Holy Eucharist.

After a long day of preaching in the Midlands, and whilst making his way home wearily, the Passionist priest Blessed Dominic Barberi (d.1849) was heckled by a Protestant who dogged his steps after the rest of the crowd had dispersed. Shouting that Blessed Dominic was an idolator, and was guilty of blasphemy for worshipping a mere piece of bread, the priest stopped in his tracks, turned to him, and said, 'You say it is not the Body of Our Lord. Christ says it is. Whom should I believe?' Turning, he continued his walk home without being bothered by the gentleman further.

The intimacy of association between the Blessed Virgin and Our Lord, between Mother and Son, has led many saints to call Mary, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament. Indeed, the founder of the Blessed Sacrament Fathers, St Peter Julian Eymard (d.1868), dedicated one whole volume of his nine-volume series of meditations on the Holy Eucharist to Our Lady under this very title. Writing of Mary's life in union with her Divine Son, St Peter Julian writes that, 'To honour the hidden life of Jesus [in the Eucharist], Mary effaced herself, aiming at being nothing more than a human appearance, as it were, whose whole being and substance are changed, transformed into Jesus Christ.' Such was – and is – Our Lady's desire to become so utterly conformed to the likeness of her Son.

Truly, we might sing in praise of the Blessed Sacrament, with the closing words of the Ave Verum Corpus, 'O my loving, gentle One,/ Sweetest Jesus,/ Mary's Son. Amen.'

STANDING NOTICES

A warm welcome to new parishioners and visitors. If you have recently moved to the area please complete one of the Contact Details postcards at the back of the church and return it to Fr Joseph. Thank you.

Masses may be said for the living and the dead. Please enter the details on one of the Mass Offering envelopes available at the back of the church, place your offering inside the envelope, and return it to Fr Joseph. A typical offering is £10 for each Mass requested. We cannot guarantee your preferred date for the Mass but we will get as close to it as possible. Thank you.

Going into hospital by appointment or in an emergency? Please let Fr Joseph know. Ipswich hospital has a lay Catholic chaplain, Mrs Rachel Tearle, a member of St Mark's parish and an experienced nurse. If you would like support from the chaplaincy team, please refer by calling 01473 704100 or by sending an e-mail to chaplaincy@esneft.nhs.uk. For urgent chaplaincy needs 24/7, please call the switchboard at 01473 712233 and ask for the on-call chaplain. When making a referral, please provide the patient's name, ward (if known), and your contact details in case further information is needed.

Call a Priest in an emergency! If someone is dying, do not wait but call a priest to administer the Last Rites. If Fr Joseph is not immediately available, call one of the other priests in a nearby parish.

Gift Aid. If you are a British taxpayer but have not yet completed a Gift Aid form please do so. You can add considerably to the income of the parish at no further cost to yourself. Gift Aid forms are available at the back of the church. Completed forms should be returned to Fr Joseph. Thank you.

Legacies can provide much needed financial support to parishes. Please consider leaving a legacy in your will for St Pancras Catholic Church, Ipswich. Thank you.

Sunday sermons may be found on our parish website.

Tuesday is Fr Joseph's day off. The phone, the doorbell, and e-mails are unlikely to be answered on Tuesdays.
